International Political Science Association (IPSA) - Research Committee on Political Socialization and Education (RC21) in cooperation with Research Committee on Psycho- Politics (RC29) and the University of Aalborg – Institute of Economics, Politics and Administration. For contact: Niels Nørgaard Kristensen

Introduction: Hello!

Dear Friends & Colleagues,

Please find hereby the newest RC21 Newsletter!

The latest IPSA Conference, which was a great success, generated some good news for our RC 21 on Political Socialization & Education.

The panels of our RC21, some of which were organized with the Sister RC 29 on Psycho- Politics, were highly interesting, and all panels were well attended.

The quality and ambiance of the RC 21 meetings have – as always- attracted a number of new colleagues from around the world, and they – again- did inspire the plans and perspectives of those who feel already involved in RC21, or are “family” members.

More good news is, that our scientific journal which we all want to launch and be ranked, “Politics, Culture and Socialization”, will, thanks to our publishers (Barbara Budrich) spiritual and logistical efforts, and to the Boards usual relaxed but extremely dedicated attitude, will see its first daylight in Spring 2010! You are encouraged to send us your manuscripts, notes on future conferences, and book reviews.

In order to receive the first issue of the journal, it is very important that you transfer in time your 2010 RC21 (and RC29) membership contribution that equally includes your journal subscription to our treasurer, Philippe De Vries (University of Antwerp, Belgium). Please do contact Philippe if you have any questions regarding your membership and journal subscription.

And there is more good news. the first meeting of our IPSA Research Committee’s will be in Aalborg, Denmark, September 2010, after which all of us will, in 2011, meet at the Jagellonian University of Krakau, Poland, where, of course, we all want to go, before attending the 2012 IPSA meeting in Madrid!

For more information, read this RC21 November Newsletter and our renewed website www.politicalsocialization.org

We wish everybody a Merry Christmas and an inspiring and healthy New Year!

Prof. Christ’l De Landtsheer (University of Antwerp, Belgium) President

Prof. Trond Solhaug (Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Norway)
General Secretary

The conference will address the issue of opportunities for an educated “citizen democracy”.

To what degree are contemporary notions of representative liberal democracy compatible with ideals of participative democracy? How does ideas of citizenship as “involvement in public affairs” - aiming at educating the citizenry by gaining the knowledge, skills and values relevant to the nature and practices of this normative model of democracy - match current transitions of social reality?

Much mainstream debate on citizenship has been premised on the assumption that citizens are fully formed individuals able to express their interests in the public domain. Still, many groups in society do not have access to the avenues of communication necessary for them to participate in society. At the same time, many individuals and groups do not feel encouraged to participate.

In the 21st Century, citizenship, as accounted for by e.g. T.H. Marshall, may not give a comprehensive theoretical framework for understanding, what it means to be political in an age characterized by globalization and post modernity – or what it means to be a citizen in a digital era.

We welcome all papers within the research field of Political socialization and education - a special focus is given to:

- Civic involvement
- Social capital
- Political literacy
- Media (new & traditional)

2. RC21 in Santiago

Panels

RC21 organized the following panels at the IPSA conference in Santiago:

Education for democratic citizenship (303) Monday July 13

Democracy and Political Socialization (570) Monday July 13

Civic Education at School (571) Tuesday July 14

Policy Issues for Socialization and Education (572) July 15

Leadership: Perspectives from Political Psychology and Political Socialization (RC21 - RC29) July 15

Business Meeting

Present: Christ'l De Landtsheer, Paul Dekker, Kjetil Børhaug, Trond Solhaug, Richard Niemi, Simone Abendschön, OP Sharma, Visay Laxmi Pandit, Lorenzo Barrault, Henri Milner.

- Christ'l de Landtsheer explained challenges in the release of the journal – Barbara Budrich Verlag, present at the Chilean conference, agreed to complete the release of the first four issues in 2010.
- Following the report of the treasurer, bank transfer of membership fees from outside EU are very expensive for the RC. It should be clear that members, if applicable, are supposed to pay for their money transfer costs. Besides, in 2008 & 2009 only few members paid their duties. Therefore a fee raise will be necessary. The regular membership fee will include the journal subscription, so that members can receive the journal to a reduced price. The 2010 membership will, as the journal, follow the calendar year.
- A new call for membership duties (2010) will be launched through the coming Newsletter. Everybody is kindly asked to pay timely in order to receive the journal.
- A discussion of merging the research committees RC21 and RC 29 was held. It was, however, agreed that it has for both committees more advantages to closely cooperate on everything, but not to merge. Two RC's receive more panels than one, there is seed money by IPSA for cooperation and joint initiatives or conferences etc.
- Next round table conference for RC21/29 Will take place in Ålborg in September 2010 (15-17.) The following conference will be organized in Krakau.
- Christ'l De Landtsheer will continue as president till IPSA conference 2012. Trond Solhaug will continue as general secretary for the same period.

Instructions for authors

Since the journal's circulation is worldwide, the journal welcomes contributions from authors in all parts of the world. Manuscripts should be submitted to the Managing Editor.

Authors' responsibilities include the following:

- Submit a manuscript which has not been submitted for publication or published in any other publication.
- Get written permission to publish lengthy quotations, illustrations, etc. for which the author does not own the copyright.

- Send four copies of the manuscript to the Managing Editor for peer review. Manuscripts can also be sent by e-mail to the Managing editor and to the Co-Managing Editor.

Manuscript preparation instructions:

- Use standard American English.
- Use MS-Word to produce the manuscript.
- Type the title of the article, the name of the author(s), the university affiliation and the correspondence address on the cover page.
- The title should briefly indicate the exact subject of the article.
- Type the title also on the first page of your text.
- The article should begin with a summary – abstract – of about 130 words.
- A list of three to six key words should be provided directly below the abstract. These key words should express the most important content of the manuscript, as they will be used for indexing purposes.
- The text should be as concise and clear as possible.
- Use as few figures and illustrations as possible and only if necessary to clarify the text. Figures and illustrations must be originals or sharp clear photo copies. Number them sequentially, give each a descriptive title, and refer to them in the text. Put each figure and illustration on a separate page at the end of the manuscript.
- Use as few tables as possible and only if necessary to clarify the text. Number them sequentially, give each a descriptive title, and refer to them in the text. Check data for accuracy and make sure that information repeated in the text is correct. Each table should be comprehensible without reference to the text. Put each table on a separate page at the end of the manuscript.
- Do not use foot- or endnotes. Include all necessary reference information directly in the text (e.g.,Brown, 1999, p.22-25).
- Use the Harvard style for the in text references and the reference list.
- Check that all text references cited are listed and that all references listed are cited in the text.
- Check that the spellings of names and publication years in the text agree with the list of references.
- Number each page.
- Print only on one side of the paper.

Review procedure

The journal is committed to high standards of peer review. Each manuscript accepted for review by the managing editor is evaluated by two or more scholars active and publishing in the field of political socialization. Their evaluations help the Executive Editors decide whether to publish a manuscript. The main criteria used in making editorial decisions are scientific originality and contribution to the field of knowledge about political socialization and behavior. After a manuscript has been accepted for publication and after all revisions have been incorporated, the author must submit a hard copy of the final article accompanied by electronic files on CD or diskette. The CD/disk must be the one from which the accompanying finalized version of the manuscript was printed.

Before publication, the author will receive a proof copy to check for typographical errors only. The proof copy and corrections must be returned to the Managing Editor within two weeks of receipt together with a statement transferring copyright from the author(s) to the publisher.
